CORINTH, MISS., Feb. 16, 1887.

SWIPT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.:

Gentlemen—Ever since I came out of the war, up to two years ago, I had catarrh. At times the disease was very offensive. I tried all the doctors that I could see, and nearly every catarrh medicine that I saw advertised; but I got no permanent relief until two years ago, when I began taking S. S. S. I feit immediate benefit from the medicine, and after taking six bottles I feit lisk a now man. When I began using the medicine I was in a very bad condition my digestion was poor, I had rheumatic pains in my knees, and my feet were always cold. These unpleasant conditions were remedied at once by Swiff's Specific, I ceased using the medicine after the six bottles because I felt so well that I thought I was entirely cured. This past fall, however, I had a relapse—evidently I had stopped taking S. S. S. too soon. So I at once began with the medicine, and I am happy to tell you that I sm very much improved, my general health being excellent, and the catarrh rapidity disappearing.

I have great faith in S. S. S. for catarrh and eing excellent, and the same pearing.

I have great faith in S. S. S. for catarrh and slood impurities, and I recommend it to all my seighbors who are sick. Yours truly, C. C. KEY. Books on "Contagious Blood Poison" and on Blood and Skin Diseases" mailed free. For sale by all druggists. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Drawer 3, Atlanta, Ga.

INDUSTRIAL EDUCATION.

Provided by Pupils From Class in Cooking.

Class in Cooking.

The Garnet school building presented an animated appearance yesterday afternoon, the occasion being the first dinner prepared and served by young ladies belonging to that building who have taken a course of lessons in cookery at Mrs. Woodbury's School of Cookery. The table was placed in the large hall of the building, and from the snowy whiteness of the table cloth the minutest detail was perfect in all its parts. The bill of fare was: "Soup—St. Julian. Fish—Boiled cod. egg sauce. New potatoos. Entrees—Slied tomatoes and cucumbers a la Mayonnias. Croquets with green puss. Rosst—Spring lamb, mint sauce. Vegetables—Asparagus and rice. Dessert—Wine and lemon city, gold and sliver cake, frozen custard. Cafe."

The buying, preparation, cooking, and strying was the work of the nealth very the paragus and rice. Dessert—Wine and lemon celly, gold and silver cake, frozen custard. Cafe.

The buying, preparation, cooking, and strving was the work of the pupils, under the direction of Miss Merriman, and was most admirable in every respect. Dinner was provided for fifty pursons, and cost, all told, $7.48. showing that economy as well as science in cooking had been instilled in the minds of the pupils. Among those present were Trustee Johnson, Superviving Principals Henry and W. S. Monigomery, Mrs. Helen O'Conner, of the Miner normal rehood, and who has also taken an active part in the instructions given to the pupils in cooking: Miss Briggs, principal of Howard University normal school; Mr. Jas. H. N. Waring, principal of Garnet building, and the lady teachers of the building.

The dinner in every respect was a complete success, and will doubtless have an excellent effect in arousing an interest in favor of industrial education in our pubils eshoots. The following ladies, under the direction of Missesta Merrimao, prepared and served the dinner: Misses Hettle Quandee, Loulie Peters, Nelle Price, Una Hyman, Leonora Randolph, and Mollie Goines. Trustee Johnson, Mr. Wating, and the Messra Monigomery congratuated the pupils upon the practicable result of their training in the art of cookery, and as ured them that the ontire school authorities were in harmony with them in the effort to demonstrate practical industrial education.

Mr. Walter Galt, son of M. W. Galt, the jeweler, was attacked by a highwayman and robbed of his gold watch at an early hour yesterday morning on P street, near Twenty-first, while on his way home. The act was seen by Officer Goucher, who gave chase to the thief. He made repeated demands on the fugitive to halt, but was not heeded, and fired at the man with effect, as blood stains were afterwards discovered on the sidewalk. The chase was down P street toward Connecticut avenue, and the officer was nearly within reach of the fugitive when Mr. Haine's house was reached, where, unexpectedly, he follinto an old sunken well. By the time he got out of his unfortunate situation the thief had disappeared. The officer retraced his steps, and in doing so found the stolen watch in the street, where the thief had thrown it.

A HANDSOME IMPROVEMENT. The Stock Market Regains Some of Its

Buoyancy. New York, June 3.—The to se of the stock market to-day was in marked contrast with that of yesterday. Almost everything showed a handsome improvement. Fort Worth and Denver, for the first time to many days, closed with a net gain for the day. Jersey Central was remarkably strong when it became known that progress was being made upon the reorganization plan. Reading was still less active than yesterday. The grangers were strong, especially Northwestern. The coalers displayed some strongth in the early dealings. The upward movement was checked toward 2 p. m., and in the last hour prices sagged off, the market finally closing quiet and heavy.

"Outing" Growing Popular."

To take an "outing" is English, you know, and the thing is growing popular over here. Small parties now go for a tramp of a Sunday, or go boating, or bleyeling, or fishing as regularly as if it were part of the weekly life. So it is a part and a good part. It ought to be encouraged. Whenever overcome by faintness or distiness in your trips take a few of BRANDARTH'S PILIS. They keep the blood in good order, the head clear and steady, and the nerves under mental control.
